The protracted meeting at the Keytesville Christian church, conducted by the pastor, Dr. W. T. Moore, and Rev. C. H. Winders of Columbia, closed Tuesday night after having continued for over two weeks. These divines put forth the most earnest efforts for the salvation of souls, and Miss Otta Stephens of Columbia added very materially to the services by her splendid attainments as a vocalist. There were 26 additions to the church during the meeting. To those who had to be baptized the ordinance of baptism was administered either at the church Friday night or in the Mussel Fork Sunday afternoon. Dr. Moore will fill his regular appointment here next Sunday, morning and evening. All are invited.

The COURIER drops 160 names of parties, who are more than a year behind on their subscription from its list of subscribers this week. These have read the COURIER between $400 and $500 worth without paying a cent for more than a year, and as a matter of self-preservation we can no longer afford to carry them. If they do not think enough of the COURIER to pay for it they are not the class of patrons we want, and we will only re-instate them when they pay up. If they are not willing to do that then they do not need the COURIER in their business.

More New Suits.

Eight more new suits for the September term of circuit court at Salisbury have been filed with Circuit Clerk Z. T. Lamkin during the past week as follows:

CIVIL CASES.

Jas. Barry vs. R. A. Patterson, suit to try title. O. P. Ray of Keytesville is plaintiff's attorney.

People's bank of Hale vs. Kilpatrick & Lisle, suit on note. U. A. House of Sumner is plaintiff's attorney.

Rock Island Implement Co. vs. D. Iglehart et al, suit on note. Crawley & West of Keytesville are plaintiff's attorneys.

Linville Sharp vs. John Sparks, damages. C. C. Bigger of Laclede brought the suit for plaintiff, who charges that defendant scandalized him by accusing him of having left his wife and run off with another woman. Mr. Sharp has sued for $5,000 actual and $5,000 punitive damages.

Rufus D. Burris vs. Mary D. Burris divorce. Plaintiff states in his petition that he and the defendant were married in Chariton county July 22, 1898, and lived together from that time until September 3, 1903, when defendant, plaintiff alleges, abandoned him without just cause or provocation and has since refused to live with him though he has often entreated her so to do. She is now living at Lewis, Kas. Maj. W. H. Bradley of Salisbury is Mr. Burris' attorney.

Edward Hill vs. Anna Hill, divorce. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were married in this county November 3, 1893, and lived together as husband and wife until January, 1902, when, according to plaintiff's petition, defendant willfully absented herself from plaintiff's bed and board without a reasonable cause, and, after a space of more than three years, continues to absent herself and refuses to live with plaintiff. Plaintiff further states that no children were born of said marriage. Attorney A. L. Friesz of Triplett is of counsel for plaintiff.

Ida J. Kennedy vs. Calvin A. Kennedy, divorce. Plaintiff and defendant were married in Pike county, Ill., June 1, 1873, and lived together till February 20, 1905. As grounds for divorce Mrs. Kennedy, who now lives near Sumner, charges her husband with being cross and ill-tempered, with cursing, abusing and annoying her, calling her vile names, and she says that on several different occasions during the past two years defendant, with a dangerous and deadly weapon and while in a state of intoxication, drove her from home and compelled her to seek protection of neighbors. Plaintiff further charges defendant with having consorted and kept company with lewd women and with having visited such women in houses of disrepute. Hudson Bros. of Hale, Carroll county, are Mrs. Kennedy's lawyers.

Catherine Morgan vs. Wm. Morgan, divorce. Plaintiff and defendant were married in Chariton county December 28, 1892, and lived together until July 19, 1905. Mrs. Morgan charges her husband with habitual drunkenness, cruel treatment, threatening to kill her and with having driven her and her children from home on three different occasions. Besides her prayer for divorce Mrs. Morgan asks the court to grant her support pendente lite from the means of defendant, that she be granted the care and custody of their six minor children, ranging in age from 7 months to 11 years, and that she be awarded such an amount of alimony, either in gross or by installments, as shall be reasonable and proper. Mrs. Morgan says that her husband owns 180 acres of land worth $9,000 or $10,000, subject to a mortgage of about $2,400, and that he owns personal property and growing crops of the value of $2,000. R. B. Caples of Glasgow is Mrs. Morgan's legal adviser. The parties to this suit reside in the vicinity of Forest Green and plaintiff's maiden name was Miss Catherine Craig.

Cupid's Conquests.

DOLL-RICE:—Henry Doll and Miss Ethel Etta Rice, both of Rothville, were married at Rothville Sunday, July 23, 1905, Rev. R. C. Miller tying the gordian knot. The bride of this nuptial event is but 17 years old and was married by the consent of her father, John W. Rice.

WILEY-LEWIS:—The lady who was formerly Mrs. Susie Lewis of Keytesville writes us that she has changed her name, and orders the COURIER sent to her at Des Moines, Iowa, where she was married last week to Jeff Wiley, an East Third street saloon-keeper. We take pleasure in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley.

McGOWAN-STACY:—J. M. McGowan of near Mike and Miss Madge D. Stacy of near Chranecville were married on the pub-highway, near Mike, Sunday, July 30, 1905, Justice Wm. Graves making the twain one. The fair bride is only 17 years of age, but was led to the hymeneal altar by permission of her mother, Mrs. Eddie C. Stacy.

PICKERING-BLACKSTONE:—Wm. Pickering of Richmond, Mo., and Miss Belle Blackstone of Monroe City, Mo., formerly of Mendon, were married Wednesday, August 2, 1905, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blackstone of Monroe City. The bridal couple are now spending their honeymoon taking in the Lewis & Clark exposition at Portland, Oregon.

MILLICAN-ROEBKEN:—Ira Millican of Mendon and Miss Annie Roebken of Dalton were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roebken, in Dalton, Wednesday, August 2, 1905, Rev. A. B. Culbertson of Huntsville sealing the plighted vows. The wedding was a quiet, sensible, home affair. The bridal couple have many friends who join the COURIER in best wishes for their future happiness. They will make their home at Strahan, Iowa, where the bridegroom has a good position as agent for the Wabash.

WELLS-ARRINGTON:—C. E. Wells of Nevada, Iowa, and Miss Edmonia Arrington, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Arrington of 2 1-2 miles southwest of Keytesville, were married at the Presbyterian church in this city Thursday evening, August 3, 1905, at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. Franc. Mitchell pronouncing the beautiful words that linked the hearts and lives of these two estimable young people. The bride is one of the most lovable of young ladies, while the bridegroom is a fine-looking gentleman and is in the employ of a mining company at Folsom, Cal. Mr. Wells is a nephew of his bride's brother-in-law, H. W. Hoel of St. Louis, and they met for the first time at Mr. Hoel's home during the World's fair, and now their marriage is a happy consummation of that meeting. The COURIER's richest blessing is pronounced upon their union. Mr. and Mrs. Wells left on the midnight train last night for a visit to his parents at Nevada, Iowa, and will go from there to Folsom, Cal., where they will make their home.

Stole a Horse.

A stranger giving his name as John Staats arrived in Keytesville Friday morning riding a brown mare and put the animal up at Shaughnessy's livery stable. Shortly afterwards he expressed a desire to sell the mare. He struck up a trade with Constable Chas. Parker and asked him $40 for the mare, but after considerable bartering back and forth sold her to Mr. Parker for $10, who gave Staats in payment a check on the Farmers' bank, payable to Staats' order. Of course the bank refused to cash the check unless Staats could identify himself. He said he was from Lingo, Macon county, and that his father lived there. Constable Parker told Staats he would call up his father by long-distance telephone and see if he was all right. A call was placed, but before connection could be obtained Staats sneaked out of town.

Wednesday morning John Simmons of 4 1-2 miles west of Marcelline, Linn county, came down and found that the mare, which was still in Mr. Parker's possession, was one that had been stolen from him Thursday night of last week.

Simmons had offered $20 reward for the recovery of the animal and gladly paid that sum to Mr. Parker.

Staats took the check for $10 with him that Parker gave him, but as payment has been stopped on this check at the bank Parker will not lose the $10 even though Staats should succeed in cashing the check elsewhere.

Nothing further has been heard of the thief. Mr. Simmons, however, is certain that the name of Staats is only assumed, and he thinks he knows the fellow's real name.
